

Professional Biography – Bishop Dhinaththoodhu Raja

Bishop Dhinaththoodhu Raja was born in Thoothukudi District, Naagareth Village, as the grandson of Bishop Rajakumar and the son of the late Chief Bishop Dr. G. Rajakumar. From his childhood, he walked closely with his father in ministry, observing his compassionate heart and dedication. Growing under such spiritual guidance, Bishop Raja imbibed deep faith, humility, and a lifelong commitment to God.

From 1992 onward, he began proclaiming the name of the Lord as an evangelist, sharing his powerful testimony and ministering to people with great burden for souls. In the year 2000, he was consecrated as a Bishop, combining both church ministry and gospel ministry with unwavering dedication.

After the passing of his father, the late Chief Bishop Dr. G. Rajakumar, in 2006, the pastors, believers of all branch churches, his mother, and his siblings unanimously chose him to be the Bishop. On June 4th of the same year, he was consecrated as Bishop under the leadership of the late Dr. D.G.S. Dhinakaran and Bishop Dr. Dayanandhan.

From that day onward, he has faithfully pursued God's vision of establishing one thousand churches, carrying this divine burden with commitment and prayer. Bishop Dhinaththoodhu Raja continues to serve with deep compassion for the poor, the destitute, orphans, and children who have not yet known God. Through tireless ministry, he has become a source of blessing to countless souls.

On October 8, 2015, he celebrated his fiftieth birthday and continues to walk in even greater vision and spiritual strength. He also serves as the head of two educational institutions, working extensively for the welfare of parents and students.

With the God-given vision to build one thousand churches, Bishop Raja expanded his mission further by stepping into television ministry. Thus, on October 8, 2016, he joyfully launched "Thoodhu Television", with a vision to take the Gospel to the nations. He continues to work earnestly for the day when Thoodhu TV will broadcast globally by God's grace.

Together with his family and the believers of the ministry, he has been fulfilling several God-given visions:

- Village ministry development
- Ministry worker unions
- Establishing Jesus Garden
- Founding the Fire Anointing Power Camp

These projects reflect his passion for spiritual strengthening and outreach.

Educational Ministry and Growth

Following the footsteps of his father, Bishop Raja has greatly strengthened the educational ministry. He leads several institutions with dedication and works to bring high-quality education to rural communities. Through his leadership, many students—especially from backward backgrounds—have risen to excellent positions in society.

A tailoring training center, an industrial training institute (ITI), and a variety of skill-development programs have been established to help young people become self-reliant and successful. Many who graduated from these programs now serve in respected positions around the world, bringing honor to the ministry.

Bishop Raja continues to carry forward educational and social welfare activities with deep love for people. His compassionate heart and leadership have opened many doors of opportunity for countless families. He remains committed to the spiritual and social upliftment of all, striving faithfully to fulfill God's calling upon his life.
